

To Whom It May Concern

I have worked as a booking agent for "KARI AND JERRY" for the past four years. The reports I have received from the clients they have performed for have always been exemplary. "KARI AND JERRY" are not only exceptionally talented and entertaining performers, but are completely professional in both their business relationships with clients and myself and in their interaction with their audiences. Not only are "KARI AND JERRY" a group that makes me a "hero" with my clients, they are also a group I truly enjoy as a member of the audience.

I can fully recommend them to anyone who wants high quality entertainment.

Sincerely,

Ian Hammer
